

Danville Symphony Concert Journal Worksheet

Listen to one of the musical selections that will be performed at the upcoming Danville Symphony Concert. After you listen to the piece, write down your reactions and any emotions you feel as you listen to it.

| Name of Music and Composer | Reactions- Emotions | What do you hear? |
|----------------------------|---------------------|-------------------|
|                            |                     |                   |
|                            |                     |                   |
|                            |                     |                   |
|                            |                     |                   |