

You are the Director!

Congratulations! You have just gotten a job directing a new TV show! And you get to choose the music!

1. On the back of this sheet if printed out, write a short description of a scene which shows one of the emotions below. You may write either a paragraph or a script.
2. In the spaces below, write the characteristics of music you would choose to show the emotion you described.

ATTENTION: It is impossible to have the wrong answer, so use your imagination!
